Express Consent. Acknowledgement of receipt of information

The Insured Person expressly acknowledges to have received and understood the General and the Specific Terms and Conditions of this insurance Policy, and accepts them.

Likewise, pursuant to Article 3 of Spanish Act 50/80, of 8 October, on Insurance Contracts, and as an additional covenant to the Specific Terms and Conditions, the Insured Person declares to have read, analysed and understood the content and scope of all the clauses of this contract and, particularly, those which, duly highlighted in bold, may limit their rights. In witness of their acknowledgement, express agreement and full approval thereof, the Insured Person grants their consent by checking the box next to the insurance option which they wish to take out.

Lastly, the Insured Person expressly acknowledges that prior to the execution of this contract, the Insurer provided written information regarding the legislation which applies to the policies, the different complaints processes, the Member State of the Insurer and its control authority, corporate name, address and legal form.

Obligations of the Policyholder

Risk Declaration

The Policyholder shall accurately state every detail they may be aware of and that may help the Insurer assess the risks being covered, described in the Specific Terms and Conditions of the Policy.

Informing of Changes in the Risk

- a. During the term of the contract, the Policyholder or the Insured Person shall inform the Insurer, as soon as possible, of all circumstances which aggravate the risk and which, due to their nature, would have caused the Insurer to not execute the contract or to execute it under more burdensome conditions, had they been known by the Insurer at the time of drafting the contract.

Within a maximum of two months since being notified of the aggravation, the Insurer may propose a modification to the contract. The Policyholder shall have fifteen days as of receipt thereof to accept or reject it. If the Policyholder rejects the modification or does not respond, the Insurer may, after the said deadline, cancel the contract giving prior notice to the Policyholder. The Policyholder shall then have fifteen days to reply, after which, within the eight subsequent days, the Insurer will notify them of the permanent cancellation.

The Insurer may also cancel the contract by sending a notification to the Insured Person within a month of being informed of the said aggravation. In the event that the Policyholder or the Insured Person does not inform of an aggravation acting in bad faith and a claim occurs, the Insurer shall be released from its obligations. Alternatively, the cover provided by the Insurer shall be reduced according to the difference between the agreed premium and that which would have been applied if the true extent of the risk had been known.

- b. If the risk decreases during the term of the contract, the Policyholder or Insured Person may inform the Insurer of the circumstances which reduce the risk and which, due to their nature, would have caused the Insurer to not execute the contract or to execute it under more favourable conditions, had they been known by the Insurer at the time of drafting the contract.

In such a case, when the current period covered by the premium expires, the Insurer will reduce the future premium by the corresponding proportion. Otherwise, the Policyholder will be entitled to cancel the contract and to be reimbursed the difference between the premium they paid and the one they should have paid from the time they informed the Insurer of the reduction in the risk.

- c. The Policyholder or the Insured Person shall notify the Insurer, as soon as possible, of any changes (even if temporary) in the profession or employment of the Insured Person which was stated in the questionnaire submitted to the Insurer before the Policy was taken out. If the change implies an aggravation or reduction in risk, the Insurer shall proceed as stated in sections A and B above.

Any concealment, fraudulent declaration, omission or inaccuracy of these aspects, whether they affect the claim or not, will be penalised in accordance with Spanish Act on Insurance Contracts:

In case of a dishonest act, the Policy shall be cancelled.

If there is no proof of a dishonest act, a reduction will be applied to the compensation on the basis of paid premiums corresponding to those which would have been applied if the risks had been declared accurately and completely.

Premium Payment

- a. The Policyholder shall pay the Insurer the premiums in accordance to the provisions on the Wizz Air website.
- b. If the Policyholder does not pay the premium before its due date, the Insurer shall be entitled to cancel the contract or request the said payment under summary proceedings on the basis of the policy. Unless otherwise agreed, if the premium is not paid before the claim occurs, the Insurer shall be released from its obligations.

If any of the subsequent premium payments are not made, the Insurer shall suspend their cover one month after the payment due date. If the Insurer does not claim the payment within six months of the premium due date, the contract will be deemed to have been cancelled. In any case, while the contract is suspended, the Insurer may only request the payment of the premium for the current period.

If the contract is not cancelled or terminated pursuant to the previous paragraphs, the cover will be reinstated 24 hours after the day that the Policyholder pays the premium.

Other information

Basis of the Insurance

- a. The Policyholder's declarations establish the basis of the insurance.
- b. If the content of this Policy differs from the insurance proposal or from the clauses agreed, the Policyholder may request the Insurer, within one month of the delivery of the Policy, to rectify the existing difference. If the claim is not made within the said deadline, the provisions of the Policy shall apply.

If once the contract has been executed the Insurer finds out that the statements made by the Policyholder are inaccurate, the Insurer may terminate the contract within one month as of the date they become aware of the said inaccuracy. Except in the event of misconduct or gross negligence by the Insurer, the Insurer must pay the premiums corresponding to the period in force at the time the statements are made.

- d. If the age of the Insured Person is incorrectly indicated, the Insurer will only be able to cancel a contract if the real age of the Insured Person on the effective date of the contract does not meet the conditions for acceptance defined by the Insurer.

If, as a result of the age having been incorrectly indicated, the premium paid is lower than the premium that should be paid, the cover provided by the Insurer will be reduced in proportion to the premium received. However, if the premium paid exceeds the premium that should have been paid, the Insurer must refund the surplus received, interest-free.

Effective Date of the Insurance

The insurance shall come into force as of the effective date indicated in the Specific Conditions of the Policy, provided that the premium has been paid.

- b. Notifications made by an Insurance Broker to the Insurer shall have the same effects as if they had been made by the Policyholder, unless otherwise specified by the Policyholder.

- c. Notifications made by the Insurer to the Policyholder, Insured Person or Beneficiary shall be sent to their address indicated in the Policy.

Extraordinary Risks:

In accordance with the consolidated text of the Bylaws of the Spanish Insurance Compensation Consortium, approved by Spanish Royal Legislative Decree 7/2004, of 29 October, and amended by Spanish Act 12/2006, of 16 May, the Policyholder of an insurance contract that must compulsorily include a surcharge in favour of the said Consortium is entitled to cover the extraordinary risks with any insurance company that meets the requirements defined by the legislation in force.

Compensations resulting from claims caused by extraordinary events that take place in Spain or abroad if the primary residence of the Insured Person is located in Spain, shall be paid by the Spanish Insurance Compensation Consortium once the Policyholder pays the corresponding surcharges to the Consortium and once one of the following situations takes place:

- a. If the extraordinary risk covered by the Spanish Insurance Compensation Consortium is not covered by the insurance policy taken out with the insurance company.
- b. If the insurance company, despite being covered by the said insurance policy, cannot meet their obligations due to being declared insolvent by the courts, to being subject to a supervised liquidation or to being taken over by the Spanish Insurance Compensation Consortium.

The Spanish Insurance Compensation Consortium will adjust their services to the said Bylaws, to Spanish Act 50/1980, of 8 October, on Insurance Contracts, to the Regulation on extraordinary risk insurance contracts, approved by Spanish Royal Decree 300/2004, of 20 February, and to supplementary provisions.
